March Madness Challenge:

As many of you know, the studio grows the most through word of mouth. You also probably know that when you refer a student and they take their first private dance lesson, YOU are given a free private dance lesson as a "thank you!" What you may not know is that YOU can purchase someone (a new someone to the studio) an Introductory Special gift card for just $30. This Gift will provide your guest a 1-hour private lesson, 1 group class, and 1 dance party (for a single or a couple)! What an inexpensive way to share the wonderful world of dance with a friend and to potentially earn a free private lesson for yourself!

So, for the month of March, we challenge YOU to either invite a friend to ANY of our regular Friday or Saturday dance parties and/or purchase an Introductory Special gift card for a new guest.

In addition to YOU receiving a free private dance lesson as a "thank you," We are also VERY excited to introduce to you our new Exclusive Qualified Guest Dance Party!

Wednesday Mini Series with Ray:
We've started focusing on specialty dances Wednesday nights at 8pm for the entire month to allow more thorough studies. March's specialty dance will be Nightclub 2-Step. Please note that this will be intermediate levels only.
